Mark Reeder – Five Point One

Mark Reeder is a name few of you may be familiar with but has been a driving force beneath many sides of music for the last 35 years.

Hailing from Manchester, Mark formed a punk band in 1977 with Simply Red's Mick Hucknall before moving to Berlin where he is now based. In the early 80's he became Factory Records German representative in Berlin and also hosted a Berlin special of 'The Tube'. During the 90's Mark was at the forefront of Trance movement, playing a large part in the success of Paul Van Dyk.

This year sees the release of his new album "Five Point One", a remix album created solely for the tech savvy 5.1 surround system, bringing a new listening experience to the listener. The album features Mark's remixes of the likes of Depeche Mode, The Pet Shop Boys and Bad Lieutenant. Also included on the album is Mark's remix of our latest single "The Prisoner" which can be heard on the link below.

The album will be released in mid October on Kennen.
